

WHERE'D YOU GO? } for cancer care.

In St. Louis, where you went to high school says a lot about you. So does where you went for cancer care. And people like Dick Benkelman are saying great things about St. Anthony's Cancer Care Center. Our accredited center provides comprehensive cancer services including diagnostics, treatments, and advanced technology, so patients can get back to what they like best – living life.

And that's just what Dick is doing. St. Anthony's got him back on the handball court and helped him make the 12th annual "reunion of the Soldan jocks" in Lake Tahoe.

I went to St. Anthony's. Where'd you go?
